

Inns of Monterey Set the Stage For a Star-Studded Visit

--Iconic Sights and Luxe Accommodations--

August 7, Monterey, Calif. –The popular hit Big Little Lies features performances by some of Hollywood’s top actors, yet the real star of the show is Monterey and the surrounding area’s gorgeous sites and majestic natural beauty. For serious fans awaiting Season 2 or those who have yet to see Season 1, now is the time to visit the iconic sites that dramatically set the stage for this addictive show. The Inns of Monterey provide a home base to explore; discovering these areas are easily accessible thanks to the Inns of Monterey Big Little Lies location map.

Each of the five Inns of Monterey is relevant to many aspects of this popular series, and all are within close driving distance to sites outside Monterey proper. Casa Munras Garden Hotel & Spa is in the heart of Monterey's heritage district, just 8-minute walk from Monterey City Hall where Celeste met with Monterey City Council. Spindrift Inn, Victorian Inn, Monterey Bay Inn and the new Wave Street Inn are located in the historic Cannery Row district, a short stroll to Monterey Bay Aquarium, home to one of the most memorable mother-son Big Little Lies scenes between Ziggy and his mother, Jane. These hotels are within walking distance to Lover’s Point and Fisherman’s Wharf where Celeste, Madeline and Jane often meet at their favorite harbor side café.

Other iconic sites are instantly recognizable just a short distance from all the Inns of Monterey, including; Garrapata State Park, Pfeiffer Beach, Bixby Bridge and McWay Falls where primarily every dramatic view is featured heavily in Big Little Lies’ opening credits.
