Ideally located in the heart of picturesque downtown Monterey, the hacienda-style Casa Munras was the areas first residence, constructed in 1824 by Spanish diplomat Don Estaban Munras. Casa Munras was converted into a hotel in 1941 and continues the Munras family tradition of hospitality today.

Renovations and technological upgrades to 148 rooms and 6 new suites were completed in June 2016 and have received rave reviews from travelers. Updates include stylish hardwood floors, custom designed upholstered and wood headboards, luxurious cream color bedding punctuated by persimmon and cream ikat-patterned shams and new double-paned windows to diffuse exterior noise. Other updates include WIFI and high-definition capabilities, convenient electrical outlets, updated fire and air conditioning systems.
